1. Huge quantities of canned and dehydrated foods are reaching Durres via Polish merchant vessels. These items are being stored for use as reserves.
2. Every evening, for some short time past, fighter aircraft engage in defensive maneuvers above the city of Durres.
3. A total of 12 self-propelled cranes are to be installed at the port of Durres. Two are already in use and installation of a third one is under way. The other 9 cranes, all of German manufacture, have already arrived.
4. Some six to eight armed motor boats are normally present in the port of Durres.
5. Vertical excavations of an unknown nature are reportedly under way on the island of Saseno under the direction of Soviet officers and technicians. Vessels are forbidden to stop at Saseno.
6. For some time past arms and ammunition have been unloaded at Vlone rather than Durres. They are transported to Albania only aboard Soviet vessels.
7. During the past months submarines of unknown nationality have called at Vlone. These craft would leave the port at dawn, returning at sunset.
